

New Opportunity from Enterprise Training School, Inc.

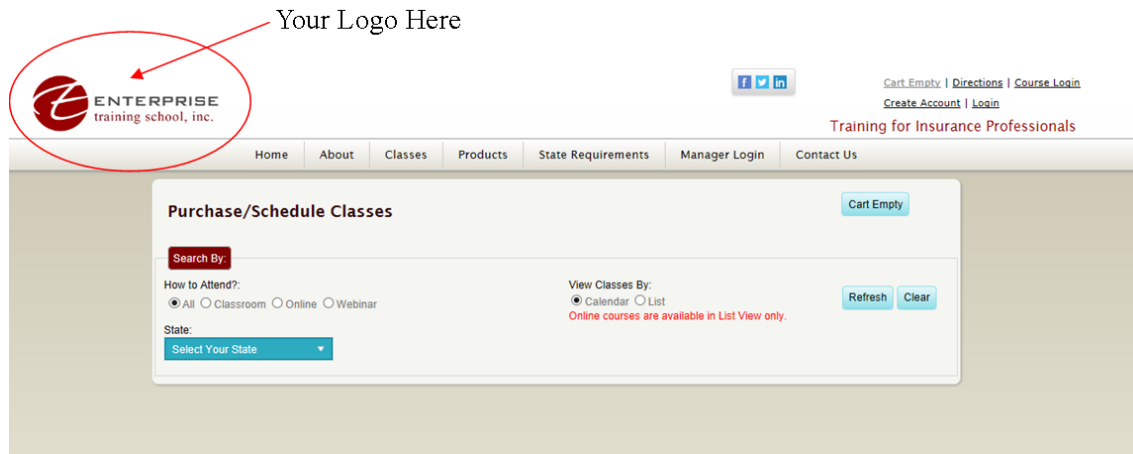

Offer your agents an easy way to stay up to date on their Continuing Education Requirements

- Are your agents wondering where to go to earn their Continuing Education credits?
- Do you want to present your agents with the most convenient options so they don't have to travel far or spend days out of the office?
- Would you like an easy way to connect your agents with a provider that offers multiple options to fit their needs?

A relationship with Enterprise Training School is all you need!

The Process is Simple:

1. We create a branded site for your company.

2. We will send you your own unique URL and button graphic to put on your site. Use the button if you like, or just add an option for CE to your existing menu. It is completely up to you!

Your Company-Specific Site
